Languages of submissions and presentations: English or Spanish or French

Objectives:

Since 2006, international conferences and doctoral consortium of the ODC division of the AOM have organized every other year by ISEOR, at University of Jean Moulin. They have been very successful, enabling an overall 1878 presentations of academics and doctoral students coming from 49 countries. Indeed, these events demonstrated the value of relationships across the Atlantic to share knowledge and experience in the field of research on themes such as:

- Comparing Doctoral Curricula existing in Europe and in the US in the field of management consulting and organizational development.
- Preparing a professional doctorate while in active life.
- Research on change management theories and methods.
- Practitioners writing a Ph.D. or a DBA dissertation.

Format of the 2022 Conference and doctoral consortium:

Two types of presentations are expected:

- Papers, conferences and testimonies proposed by academics.
- Communications written by doctoral candidates or master students regarding their work in progress.

Two prizes will be awarded to authors of best papers in each language (French, English and Spanish): one for academics and another one for doctoral students (only if the paper is not co-authored by a doctor or academic).

The best papers authored by academics or doctoral candidates (only if co-authored with their director of research) will be encouraged for submission to the Journal Recherches en Sciences de Gestion/ Management Sciences/ Ciencias de Gestión.

ISEOR is a cutting edge research center with 125 international researchers, scholar-practioners and doctoral candidates. The ISEOR International Research Center has already organized in Lyon (France) several conferences in partnership with the Academy of Management (USA) : in 2001, 2014, 2019 and 2021 with the Management Consulting Division, in 2004, 2007, 2011, 2015 with the Research Methods Division), in 2005 with the Social Issues in Management Division, in 2006, 2008, 2010, 2012, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2019 and 2020 with the Organization Development and Change Division, in 2009 with a consortium of divisions : Social Issues in Management, Organization Development and Change, Research Methods Division, Organizations and the Natural Environment, Management Consulting and Practice Theme Committee.
