International Conference and Doctoral Consortium

50th anniversary of ISEOR

11th and 12th June, 2025

Conference Organized by the ISEOR Research Center in Partnership the Magellan Center, iaelyon School of Management, University Jean Moulin; the Management Consulting and Organizational Development and Change Divisions of the Academy of Management (USA) (to be confirmed), ISODC (The International Society for Organizational Development and Change) (USA) (to be confirmed), Le CNAM (France), EADA Business School (Spain) and Benedictine University (USA)

Languages of submissions and presentations: English or Spanish or French (simultaneous translation)

Objectives:

Since 2006, international conferences and doctoral consortium of the ODC division of the AOM have organized every other year by ISEOR, at University of Jean Moulin. They have been very successful, enabling an overall 2210 presentations of academics and doctoral students coming from 50 countries. Indeed, these events demonstrated the value of relationships across the Atlantic to share knowledge and experience in the field of research on themes such as:

- Research on change management theories and methods.
- Comparing Doctoral Curricula existing in Europe and in the US in the field of management consulting and organizational development.
- Preparing a professional doctorate while in active life.
- Practitioners writing a Ph.D. or a DBA dissertation.

Format of the 2025 Conference and doctoral consortium:

Two types of presentations are expected:

- Papers, conferences and testimonies proposed by academics.
- Communications written by doctoral candidates or master students regarding their work in progress.

Two prizes will be awarded to authors of best papers in each language (French, English and Spanish): one for academics and another one for doctoral students (only if the paper is not co-authored by a doctor or academic).

The best papers authored by academics or doctoral candidates (only if co-authored with their director of research) will be encouraged for submission to the Journal Recherches en Sciences de Gestion/ Management Sciences/ Ciencias de Gestión. It is important to note that this journal only accepts articles from individuals who hold a doctoral degree (PhD or DBA). Therefore, a doctoral student may be a co-author of an article written jointly with their thesis advisor and submit it for publication in the journal.
